

#AirPollution

One of the greatest environment risk to children's health.
It can cause pneumonia.

Pneumonia Nahin, Toh Bachpan Sahi

Pneumonia can be prevented. Awareness saves lives.

PROTECT

Exclusively breastfeed the child during the first 6 months

Provide children with adequate nutrition

PREVENT

Complete the vaccination schedule (update in U-Win portal)

Reduce indoor pollution

TREAT

Seek healthcare services within 24 hours

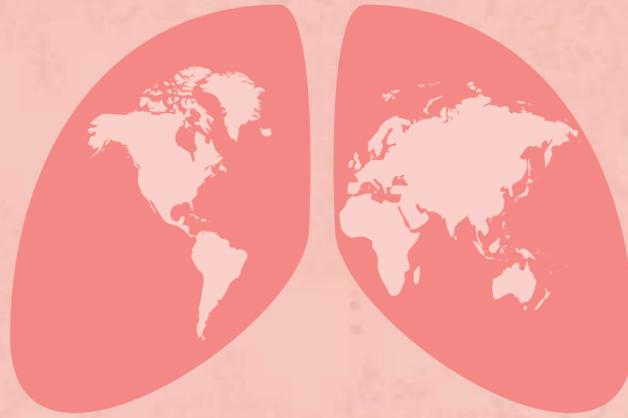

Treat using amoxicillin dispersible tablets

Oxygen Therapy (if required)

Pneumonia Nahin, Toh Bachpan Sahi

World Pneumonia Day

Under Universal Immunization Programme (UIP),
the Government has made Pneumococcal Conjugate
Vaccine (PCV) available free of cost.

The vaccines will be made
AVAILABLE IN 3 DOSES:

Week

1st DOSE

6

PCV-1

Week

2nd DOSE

14

PCV-2

Months

BOOSTER

9

PCV-B

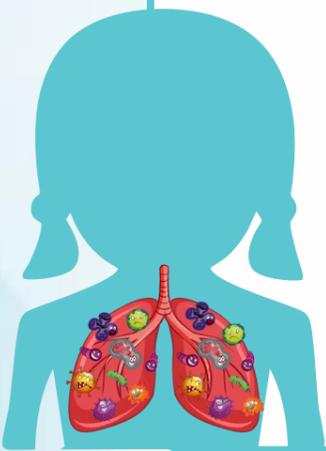

Update records in U-Win portal

Pneumonia Nahin, Toh Bachpan Sahi

The Facts about Pneumonia

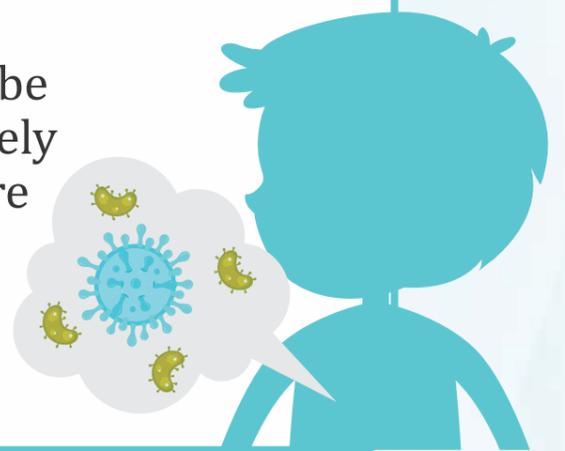

What is pneumonia?

It is an infection of the lungs that inflames air sacs, which may fill with fluid. This can happen in one or both lungs.

Is pneumonia fatal?

Yes, it could be fatal but timely & proper care can save the child.

Visit your doctor if you notice the following symptoms

Fever

Coughing up Bloody or Yellow Phlegm

No Appetite

Pneumonia Nahin, Toh Bachpan Sahi

Pneumonia is the

#1 infectious disease killer of children under 5

Simple, Proven Solutions

Exclusive breastfeeding for baby's first 6 months

Balanced nutrition, especially for kids aged 6 months to 2 years

Safe drinking water and good sanitation

Frequent handwashing with soap

Vaccination (U-Win)

Adequate indoor ventilation

Pneumonia Nahin, Toh Bachpan Sahi

Pneumonia Risk Factors

Anyone can get pneumonia but certain children are at higher risk!

Pneumonia Nahin, Toh Bachpan Sahi