Summary and review of day two activities

Instructions

- Ask the learners to summarize the day by mentioning key points covered during the sessions of the day.
- Ask learners to pick a chit from the bowl for home assignment and recap the next day.
- Ask the learners to write at least one point which they felt was good during the day and they learned something new and one point which they did not like. The trainers to collect the feedback from the learners to review later.